

Secure Services Limited W.L.L.

Secure Services Limited, established in the year 2000 provide professional international quality security services and continues to play a role in every component of the cash value supply chain. Our services are customer eccentric and tailored to meet the needs of all customers from the time banknotes are collected from the Central Bank of Bahrain and banks for the replenishment of ATMs, to collecting money securely from and to businesses.

Secure Services Limited is a 100% Bahrain owned and based company that invests in the best vehicles, apply best practise and provide the best training for our personnel to build cost-efficient, high-quality and innovative solutions that create value and respond to rapid evolving business needs.

We are committed to the highest standards of training and is, continuously recognized for our service levels and have received awards from the Guards Training School (Ministry of Interior) for our implementation of security standards and employment processes to acquire and maintain a professional workforce.

In April 2004 Secure Services Limited opened our high-tech cash processing and vaulting facility to extend our services and combine a complete outsource solution for Cash in Transit and cash management.

Our Business & Values

Established in 2000, Secure Services Limited W.L.L. is your strategic partner in Bahrain with ISO 9001 certification to provide a range of professional security related services of international quality to banks and financial institutions together with commercial and private clients requiring asset protection, risk and liability reduction.

Mission Statement

Our passion is to listen to our customers and deliver products and services that combines great technology, human interface, and a customer service ethos to solve real-world problems, and is committed to being your preferred business partner.

Our Vision

To provide transportation, safety and security products that's safer, more efficient, reliable and creates more job opportunities to support the local economy.